The next DAC Meeting will be held on Friday, June 1, 2007, 9:00 am - 1:00 pm.

11:30 – 1:00 PM CEU Panel:
Emergency Response: how it works in New Mexico
Marjolaine Greentree Licensed Post-Graduate and
Susan Eastman MA MPH, Office of Emergency Management
How individuals with chronic disease can prepare for disasters
Sue Perry PhD, CDE Health Centers of Northern NM

In 2006, Marjolaine Greentree was appointed by the Governor of New Mexico as the state's Deputy Director of Homeland Security and the Office of Emergency Management. In 2005, Susan Eastman was detailed to the Office of Emergency Management as senior planner working on strategies around individual assistance and special populations during disaster response and recovery. Both have many years of experience managing international health and relief programs.

Dr. Sue Perry is a well known speaker in the area of diabetes management and education. She is employed at Health Centers of Northern NM where she works as a psychologist and diabetes educator with a special interest in helping patients who have diabetes in coping with the many demands of daily management of diabetes.

Program Purpose:

The purpose of the Diabetes Advisory Council quarterly meetings is to provide state-of-the-art information to diabetes care providers throughout the state of New Mexico.

Program Objectives:

After this seminar, participants will be able to

- describe NM's Emergency Operating System in response and recovery.
- identify the kinds of disasters New Mexico faces.
- explain NM's attention to "populations requiring support" during disasters.

We will be offering continuing education credits for CHES, dietitians, nurses, pharmacists, and social workers.

The New Mexico Pharmacists Association is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE) as a provider of continuing pharmacy education. This program provides 1.5 hours (0.15 CEU's) of continuing pharmacy education credit. The program is designed for pharmacists and related health care providers. NMPPhA will issue statements of credit by mail within 4-6 weeks to attendees who have successfully completed a Program Evaluation Form.
